

Children's Questions
Trinity Sunday

1. Are there more gods than one?
2. What is his name?
3. When we worship God, should we think only of the Father or of the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit?
4. Pastor Cassidy said there was an old word old theologians use to describe the way the persons in God relate to one another. What word do we use all the time that comes from that word?
5. Why is something that is a mystery also something that is practical?
6. What is a benediction?
7. Why is how God relates within himself the standard and source for how the Church members relate to each other?
8. How does God treat himself? In other words, how do the Father, the Son, and the Spirit relate to one another? Peacefully? Honorably? In Love?

We also suggest training the children in the Shorter Catechism's question six.
